TRADEMARK CO-EXISTENCE AND CONSENT AGREEMENT

This Trademark Co-Existence and Consent Agreement ("Agreement"), entered into as of the 3/5/ day of August, 2007, is between Family Clubhouse Incorporated d/b/a iplay (hereinafter "Family Clubhouse"), a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of North Carolina and having a principal place of business at 2000 Riverside Drive, Unit 9, Asheville, North Carolina 28804; and International Playthings, Inc. (hereinafter "IPI") formerly called IPI Acquisition Corp., a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of New Jersey, with a principal place of business at 75D Lackawanna Avenue, Parsippany, New Jersey 07054. Both Family Clubhouse and IPI are sometimes referred to herein as a "Party" and, collectively, as the "Parties."

I. BACKGROUND

- A. Family Clubhouse is a baby wear company, and has been in the business of designing, producing and selling clothing and accessories for infants and young children for more than 20 years. An internet website for Family Clubhouse is www.iplaybabywear.com.
- B. International Playthings, Inc. is in the business of designing, producing and selling "award-winning toys for kids of all ages," and has been in business for 30 years. An internet website for International Playthings is www.intplay.com. International Playthings, Inc. has assigned certain trademark rights to IPI Acquisition Corp. which later changed its name to International Playthings, Inc.
- C. Family Clubhouse was the owner of federal trademark Registration No. 2,115,786 of I PLAY. (plus design) as a trademark for non-disposable swim diapers, in International Class 25, claiming a date of first use of February 8, 1996. That registration was granted November 25,

Trademark Trial and Appeal Board

play, inc.
v. Cancellation No. 92048260
PI Acquisition Corp.

- 1997. On February 10, 2005, a Final Decision and Cancellation Order was mailed, and Reg. No. 2,115,786 lapsed because an acceptable Section 8 Declaration had not been timely filed.
- D. On December 5, 2001, International Playthings, Inc., a predecessor in interest of IPI, filed application Serial No. 76-344,977 for registration of IPLAY. (plus design). That mark was registered February 1, 2005 as Reg. No. 2,923,675, with a claimed date of first use of February 2, 2002. The identified goods are educational toys, namely, stacking toys, rattles, blocks, rings and hammer and peg toys; bath toys; pretend play toys, namely, purse and make up sets, fishing reels and rod and fake fish sets, kitchen sets, and doctor kits; sand box toys; water and outdoor toys, namely, buckets, shovels, sand molds, sieves, sand mills and squirt toys; sport toys, namely, hula hoops, jump ropes, baseball bat and ball sets and soccer balls; games, namely, board games, card games and plastic action games; puzzles, namely, jigsaw puzzles, manipulative and cube type puzzles, in International Class 28. By an assignment executed February 28, 2005 and recorded March 11, 2005, Reg. No. 2,923,675 was assigned to IPI Acquisition Corp. On March 2, 2005, IPI Acquisition Corp. changed its name to International Playthings, Inc.
- E. On January 13, 2006, Family Clubhouse filed two replacement applications, for registration of I PLAY. (plus design) and of I PLAY., as trademarks for children's and infants' cloth bibs; children's headwear; infantwear; and non-disposable swim diapers, in International Class 25, claiming a date of first use of February 8, 1996. The applications were assigned Serial Nos. 78/791,447 and 78/791,467. In Office Actions mailed April 26, 2007, both of those applications were finally refused by the trademark examining attorney under Section 2(d) of the Trademark Act on the asserted basis of likelihood of confusion in view of Reg. No. 2,923,675.

F. Rather than initiate an action seeking cancellation of IPi's Reg. No. 2,923,675,

Family Clubhouse has contacted IPI, through counsel, about co-existing in the marketplace. The Parties desire to settle this matter, and to enter into this agreement.

II. COEXISTENCE

- A. The Parties are of the view that there is no likelihood of confusion because, among other things, the respective goods are different, the goods of the two Parties are sold in different markets and through different channels of trade, and the Parties are not aware of any instances of actual confusion.
- B. Moreover, based on current information from the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office TARR and TDR databases, International Playthings, Inc.'s then-pending application No. 76/344,977 which matured into Reg. No. 2,923,675 was approved for publication on October 14, 2002, at which time Family Clubhouse's earlier Reg. No. 2,115,786 (registered November 25, 1997) was an active registration. There is no indication in the file of Reg. No. 2,923,675 that the trademark examining attorney in that case made an issue of Reg. No. 2,115,786, and accordingly did not find a likelihood of confusion.

III. AGREEMENT

- A. Subject to paragraph III. B. below, IPI consents to Family Clubhouse's registration of the marks of Serial Nos. 78/791,447 and 78/791,467. Subject to paragraph III. B. below, Family Clubhouse agrees that it will not initiate a cancellation proceeding against Reg. No. 2,923,675.
- B. In the event the USPTO maintains the Section 2(d) refusals in either or both of application Serial Nos. 78/791,447 and 78/791,467 in view of Reg. No. 2,923,675 notwithstanding the submission of this Agreement, the Parties' consents and agreements under paragraph III. A. above are nullified, Family Clubhouse may initiate a cancellation proceeding against Reg. No. 2,923,675, IPI may set out any defenses as it sees fit, and no part of this Agreement may be referred to or relied upon to the contrary.

III. AVOIDANCE OF CONFUSION

The Parties hereto agree that they will make efforts to prevent confusion, and to cooperate and take steps to avoid any confusion that may arise in the future.

This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties, their successors, assigns, subsidiaries, licensees, affiliated companies, and all those acting in concert or participation with them.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties have, with all the necessary corporate authority, duly executed this consent agreement as of the date first written above.

3. Venue is proper in the District of New Jersey pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b) and (c).

PARTIES

- 4. Plaintiff International Playthings, Inc., is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of New Jersey and having its principal place of business at 75D Lackawanna Avenue, Parsippany, New Jersey 07054.
- 5. Defendant Family Clubhouse, Incorporated doing business as i play, upon information and belief, is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of North Carolina and having its principal place of business at 2000 Riverside Drive, Unit 9, Asheville, North Carolina 28804.

BACKGROUND

- 6. Plaintiff trades its products in North America and has established an excellent reputation for quality and service and is recognized throughout North America as a leader in providing children's toys.
- 7. As part of its marketing plan, plaintiff has adopted a number of different trademarks to be used in conjunction with the sale of plaintiff's product in the educational toy area.
- 8. One such mark that plaintiff has adopted is the I PLAY AND DESIGN trademark as shown below:

- 9. Plaintiff adopted the I PLAY AND DESIGN trademark in late 2001 in conjunction with a collection of two products for use by children from the toddler stage up through the age of five. These were the next level of toy products after the EARLYYEARS product line.
- 10. Plaintiff first began using the I PLAY AND DESIGN trademark on its toy products on February 2, 2002.
- 11. Plaintiff's I PLAY AND DESIGN trademark is prominently featured on plaintiff's marketing literature, advertising, Web site and on the toy products themselves.
- 12. In an effort to protect its I PLAY AND DESIGN trademark on its toy products, on December 5, 2001, plaintiff applied for and subsequently obtained, a federal registration for the I PLAY AND DESIGN trademark as applied to the following products: educational toys, namely, stacking toys, rattles, blocks, rings and hammer and peg toys; bath toys; pretend play toys, namely, purse and make up sets, fishing reels and rod and fake fish sets, kitchen sets, and doctor kits; sand box toys; water and outdoor toys, namely, buckets, shovels, sand molds, sieves, sand mills and squirt toys; sport toys, namely, hula hoops, jump ropes, baseball bat and ball sets and soccer balls; games, namely, board games, card games and plastic action games; puzzles, namely, jigsaw puzzles, manipulative and cube type puzzles. This Trademark Registration No. 2,923,675 was obtained by plaintiff on February 1, 2005. A copy of the registration is attached hereto as Exhibit A.
- 13. Since as early as 2002 and continuing to the present, plaintiff has enjoyed considerable sales of its toy products which bear the I PLAY AND DESIGN trademark.
- 14. Since as early as 2002 and continuing to the present, plaintiff has advertised and promoted its toy products under its I PLAY AND DESIGN trademark.

862988_1.DOC

- 15. Since the time that plaintiff began using the I PLAY AND DESIGN trademark, plaintiff has expended substantial time, effort, and funds to promote the sale of products including its children's toys in connection with the I PLAY AND DESIGN trademark throughout the United States. By virtue of its efforts, the public has come to identify the products marketed under the I PLAY AND DESIGN trademark as being of consistently high quality, and has come to associate such trademark with goods exclusively from plaintiff.
- 16. As a result of plaintiff's consistent sales and advertising of its children's toys under the I PLAY AND DESIGN trademark, such mark has acquired substantial and valuable goodwill in the marketplace, and has become plaintiff's most valued and valuable assets.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(Trademark Infringement)

17. Upon information and belief, long subsequent to plaintiff's adoption and use of the I PLAY AND DESIGN trademark, the defendant adopted and is anticipating to sell children's toy products, including children's toy tea sets and dinnerware under the I PLAY trademark and the following design trademark.

18. The products for which the defendant will use the I PLAY trademark are substantially identical to the products on which plaintiff has long previously used its I PLAY AND DESIGN trademark.

- 19. Defendant's toys sold under the I PLAY trademark will be advertised in and through the same sources, and will be sold through the same channels of trade to the same classes of customers as are the customers of plaintiff's products.
- 20. Upon information and belief, the I PLAY trademark for use in connection with the sale of toys was adopted by the defendant with actual and prior knowledge of plaintiff's long prior use of the I PLAY AND DESIGN trademark and of the substantial goodwill and high-quality reputation established in connection with such mark.
- 21. The I PLAY trademark by the defendant on toys is identical to the trademark plaintiff utilizes on toys, and therefore defendant has appropriated for itself plaintiff's I PLAY AND DESIGN trademark.
- 22. As a result, the use by the defendant of the I PLAY trademark is likely to cause confusion within the trade and the purchasing public, and to create the false impression that defendant's goods sold under the I PLAY trademark are the products of plaintiff or are sponsored by, approved by, authorized by, or associated with plaintiff, or that there is some relationship between plaintiff and defendant.
- 23. Such conduct by the defendant has caused and will continue to cause substantial damage to plaintiff unless enjoined by this Court.
- Defendant's conduct as set forth herein, constitutes willful and malicious 24. infringement of plaintiff's I PLAY AND DESIGN trademark under 15 U.S.C. § 1114, thus rendering the present case as an "exceptional" case as that term is employed in 15 U.S.C. § 1117.
 - 25. Plaintiff is without an adequate remedy at law.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

Violation of § 43(A) of the Lanham Act

- 26. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each of the allegation contained in paragraphs 1-25 of the complaint insofar as applicable to this claim.
- 27. The defendant, by use of the I PLAY trademark, in an attempt to market toys, has affixed, applied, annexed, or used in connection with the sale of such goods, a false designation of origin and false descriptions and representations which tend to falsely describe or represent such goods and has caused such goods to enter into commerce with full knowledge of the falsity of such designation of origin and of such descriptions and representations, all to the detriment and damage of plaintiff.
- 28. In particular, the sale, offering for sale, and distribution in commerce by the defendant of toys utilizing the I PLAY trademark and the overwhelming similarity to the products of plaintiff sold under the I PLAY AND DESIGN trademark constitutes a false description and representation tending to falsely describe or represent the products being sold by defendant as products endorsed, sponsored, and/or authorized by plaintiff.
- 29. Defendant's adoption of the confusingly similar I PLAY trademark was with the express intent to cause confusion or mistake, to deceive and to mislead the trade and purchasing public and to trade upon the reputation and goodwill of plaintiff, and to improperly appropriate valuable property rights of plaintiff.
- The conduct of the defendant aforesaid in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a) 30. (Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act), has caused and will continue to cause irreparable injury to plaintiff unless enjoined by this Court.
 - 31. Plaintiff is without an adequate remedy at law.

862988_1.DOC

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF

Common-Law Unfair Competition

- 32. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each of the allegations contained in paragraphs 1-31 of the complaint insofar as applicable to this claim.
- 33. The defendant, by its acts herein above alleged, have willfully, knowingly, and intentionally engaged in acts constituting unfair competition under the common law of the State of New Jersey against plaintiff, by, among other things, adopting the I PLAY trademark for toys in a manner which will undermine plaintiff's position in the marketplace.
- 34. Such conduct by the defendant has caused and will continue to cause irreparable injury to plaintiff unless enjoined by this Court.
 - 35. Plaintiff is without an adequate remedy at law.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays for the following relief:

- A. An order adjudging the defendant to have infringed plaintiff's federally registered I PLAY AND DESIGN trademark arising out of defendant's use of the I PLAY trademark on toys;
- B. An order preliminarily enjoining during the pendency of this action and finally permanently enjoining defendant, together with its officers, employees, servants, and agents, as well as all persons in active concert, privity, or participation with them from employing the IPLAY trademark or any other name or trademark which would be confusingly similar to plaintiff's federally registered I PLAY AND DESIGN trademark on or in connection with the manufacturing, packaging, marketing, displaying, offering to sell, or selling of toys;
- C. An accounting to determine defendant's profits in connection with its sales of products utilizing the I PLAY trademark and an award to plaintiff of such profits;

862988_1.FXXC

- D. An award of compensatory damages arising out of defendant's infringement and trebled as provided by 15 U.S.C. § 1117;
 - E. An order adjudging the defendant to have violated 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a);
- F. An order preliminarily enjoining during the pendency of this action and finally permanently enjoining defendant, together with its officers, employees, servants, and agents, as well as all persons in active concert, privity, or participation with them, from violating 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a) by misleading perspective purchasers into believing that defendant's products sold under the I PLAY trademark are the same, synonymous with, endorsed by, authorized by, or in any way related to plaintiff's products;
- G. An award of compensatory damages resulting from defendant's acts in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a) and an accounting for an award of all profits realized by the defendant based on the aforesaid act;
- H. An award of punitive damages arising out of defendant's acts of violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a);
- I. An order for delivery of and destruction of all products, labels, signs, prints, packages, wrappers, receptacles, advertising, marketing literature, and any other document in defendant's possession bearing the I PLAY trademark or any mark confusingly similar to plaintiff's federally registered I PLAY AND DESIGN trademark pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1118 used in connection with toy products;
- An order adjudging the defendant to be unfairly competing under the common J. law of the State of New Jersey with plaintiff;

K. An order preliminary enjoining during the pendency of this action and finally permanently enjoining defendant, together with its officers, employees, servants, and agents, as well as all persons in active concert, privity, or participation with them, from unfairly competing with plaintiff;

L. An award of compensatory damages resulting from defendant's acts of unfair competition and an accounting for an award of all profits realized by the defendant based on the aforesaid act;

M. An award of punitive damages arising out of defendant's acts of unfair competition;

- N. An award of attorney fees and costs; and
- O. Such other relief as this Court may deem necessary and just.
